Submission of articles

The Bulletin accepts proffered and commissioned articles along with short reports, on all aspects of public health. Articles should be 1500–2000 words, not including tables and figures, and should include an abstract of up to 150 words. Articles should follow the journal style and layout as closely as possible, as described in the Instructions to Authors. Articles should be emailed in a Word for Windows format to: phbulletin@doh.health.nsw.gov.au, and should be accompanied by a covering letter signed by all authors and a License to Publish. The Instructions to Authors, License to Publish and other useful information can be downloaded from the Bulletin website.

Distribution

The Bulletin is freely available from the Bulletin website. Copies of the current issue and back issues can be downloaded in both PDF and HTML formats. If you would like to be notified when new issues of the Bulletin are available online, subscribe to the early alert email system at the Bulletin website. The early alert email contains the contents of each new issue along with electronic links to the articles. To receive a printed copy of the Bulletin, subscribe online at the Bulletin website, or contact your local public health unit or the editorial office.

eISSN 1834-8610

The Bulletin uses digital publishing at all stages of production as a priority over print. The Bulletin is printed on archival quality, chlorine-free paper using low volatility vegetable-based inks and uses computer-to-plate technology. The acid-free paper meets the standards of the American National Standards Institute for Information Sciences—Permanence of Paper for Printed Library Materials, ANSI Z39.48-1992.
