

NSW PUBLIC HEALTH BULLETIN

The NSW Public Health Bulletin is a publication of the NSW Department of Health.

The acting editor is Ms Allison Salmon, Acting Manager, Public Health Training and Development Unit.

Dr Michael Giffin is managing editor.

The Bulletin aims to provide its readers with population health data and information to support effective public health action.

Submission of articles

Articles, news and comments should be 1000 words or less in length and include a summary of the key points to be made in the first paragraph. References should be set out in the Vancouver style, described in the New England Journal of Medicine, 1997; 336: 309–315. Send submitted articles on paper and in electronic form, either on disc (Word for Windows is preferred), or by email. The article must be accompanied by a letter signed by all authors. Full instructions for authors are available on request from the managing editor.
