

Data availability form

Please tick/complete all that apply (you can select more than one option):

| | |
|---|---|
| All data generated/analysed during this study are openly available from the following repository: [persistent web link to datasets] | (Open field: add repository details) |
| All data generated/analysed during this study are provided as supplementary information files accompanying the manuscript | Tick if appropriate |
| This study was re-analysis of existing data that are openly available at locations cited in the reference section | Tick if appropriate |
| All data generated/analysed during this study are available from the author on reasonable request | Tick if appropriate |
| Due to ethical concerns/commercial restrictions, supporting data cannot be made openly available. The authors can provide further information about the conditions for access | Tick if appropriate |
| No participants consented to their data being retained or shared. Additional details relating to other aspects of the data are available from [author or university data archive] | (Open field: Add author name or details of university data archive) |
| Non-digital data supporting this study are stored by the authors who can provide further information about conditions for access | Tick if appropriate |
| The data that support the findings of this study are held by a third party and were used under licence and are not publicly available. Data may be available from authors upon reasonable request with permission from the following third party/parties: [third party name] | (Open field: Add third party name/s) |
| No data were generated or analysed in the development of this manuscript | (Tick if appropriate) |